

NSW Ten Rater GP 2, Interclub Shield R2 and Doug Billing Trophy.

The Forster-Tuncurry Radio Yacht Club hosted a successful Grand Prix Interclub event for 10-rater class yachts over the weekend March 14/15, with 17 entries, including several of the top sailors in NSW. Held on the Club's excellent facility at the Tuncurry Racecourse lake. PRO on both days was Wayne Swinnerton. Saturday's scratch racing took place in difficult conditions, with a light and fluky wind in the morning, becoming steadier from the south after lunch. Due to the number of entries, two fleets were sailed, with each skipper sailing eight races. At the end of the day the winner on 13 points was Phil Page from Northern Mariners from local skipper Craig Sargent on 19. Frank Russell from Northern Mariners finished a close third with 20 points.

On Sunday, handicap racing was run in conjunction with a round of the NSW Interclub Shield. Conditions again made it difficult for course setting, with a S-SE wind, again steadier in the afternoon, with rain showers threatening. Craig Sargent and Garry Bromley (Koonawarra Bay S C) mastered the conditions best, with Craig showing greater consistency to win with 58 points from Garry on 66. Frank Russell finished third with 81 points, narrowly ahead of Ralph Hyman (Koonawarra) on 82. The Interclub team event saw a win for Kogarah Bay RYC 18 points from Forster-Tuncurry's team of Craig Sargent, Alan Griffiths and Phil

Lawson on 19 points. Third place was a tie between Northern Mariners and Koonawarra Bay S C team only 5 points behind.

Also in conjunction with the weekends racing, the Doug Billing Memorial Trophy was awarded to weekend overall winner, Craig Sargent. The trophy is in honour of the late Doug Billing, a long time Forster-Tuncurry Radio Yacht Club member and one of the true legends of the sport of radio yacht racing. – Roger Smith
