

The 2017 NSW EC12 State Titles.

Kogarah Bay Sailing Club

Saturday 6th May 2017

1st race; after two practice heats, we had boats on the line and an unpredictable breeze from the north west which gave everybody a chance to shine.

6th race; Colin (11) from Canberra, picked a port start and had a good race, being first around the top mark, this was his chance to shine.

Daniel (74) from Cessnock was attending his first states and this was also the first sail with this boat, he wins the 4th race of the day.

The second race was won by Keith (14) who led all the way from the start. He improves with each day he sails and this win proves he can do the job.

Leigh (31) a local lad! Won the 3rd, 13th and 16th races.

Russell (85) from Shoalhaven heads, gets a win in the 7th race.

Race 10 won by Damien. (32)

This spread of winners showed that all competitors won a race! This is very even racing in this one design class.

Michael (40) unfortunately had electrical and then mechanical problems and was unable to start.

The light northwest breeze persisted all day and after sixteen races the results were:
