

2006 DAVID BURNS MEMORIAL

The 2006 David Burns has been run and won. The David Burns is a match racing trophy between clubs and not individuals sailed with the A class yacht. Kogarah Bay turned on a picture perfect day. The wind was from the north at between 2 and 8 knots. Due to the event not been run the previous year the trophy was up for grabs. Four clubs entered the event, being Central Coast Radio Yacht Club, Harrington Park Radio Yacht Club, Kogarah Bay Model Yacht Club and Northern Mariners model Yacht Club.

18 races were conducted in a round robin format with each club facing each other 3 times. Racing was tight with only a few points separating all competitors. The final result was a win to the Northern Mariners.

- 1) Northern Mariners
- 2) Harrington Park
- 3) Kogarah Bay
- 4) Central Coast

