On arrival it was very disappointing to see the lack of 10R competitors for this event. Especially when the conditions were perfect for sailing. A beautiful sunny warm Winters day. Generally a light and constant wind from the north. It varied slightly during the day to NNW and back again. The racing kicked off just after 10am. A total of 20 races were completed on the day, not bad for a winter days sailing. In the early part of the day Phil, Maurice and Allan took the spoils with Robert and Terry picking up the crumbs. Phil experienced some minor gear failures and Terry sat out one race. Though it was very close at the pointy end all day between Allan and Maurice. Racing concluded just after 3pm. In the end Allan won the day by only two points from Maurice. Phil came in in 3rd place. Followed by Robert in 4th and Terry in 5th & Maurice in 6th. Thanks also to Brian and Maurice for helping out on the day.

Another Day in paradise or at least our version of it. 13 races were run with Frank Russell being the PRO for the day. With light winds the NRW's of Maurice Fletcher & Allan Bicknell had a lot of trouble catching up with the speed machine of Robert Hales and all the other boats that were sailing. All boats had their share of the ups and downs of this form of sailing with at least 1 race win. Arnold Grant sailed consistently to finish well in 4th place, Terry Lester and Ian Trethewy sailed consistently with a number of close struggles to finish the day with in 1 point of each other. Michael Buch sailed well and seemed to be coming to terms with his boat with some great results. Maurice Jackson sailed extremely well despite a lot of problems with radio gear on the day and should have finished higher but for these problems. A great day was had by all sailing for what is a very special trophy for me and a lot of other skippers who were lucky enough to sail with Bob Shedden. Thanks must go to Frank & Marilyn Russell, Ron Notter and all who helped on the day and over the whole weekend. A special thanks must go to Pam Shedden who came along and provided a fantastic morning tea which we were all grateful for. Allan Bicknell
